AUSTRALIA – UKRAINE TIES IN EDUCATION

Executive Director of Community Languages Australia, Stefan Romaniw OAM recently met with the Minister for Education of Ukraine Mr Volodymyr Vakarchuk in Kyiv.

During the discussions Mr Romaniw explained the work of community languages schools in Australia and more specifically Ukrainian schools.

Discussion also focused on the opportunities of cooperation between Australia and Ukraine. The Minister highlighted opportunities in the areas of student exchanges and cooperation in working on materials and methodology

The Minister already has ties with Australia as in previous role prior to becoming Minister he was Vice Chancellor of the Ivan Franko University in Lviv and signed a Memorandum of Understanding with the Monash University. Monash University Vice Chancellor Prof Larkins visited Lviv to sign the MOU. Monash offers Ukrainian under the leadership of Ass. Marko Pavlyshyn
